WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY FOR THE LAID-BACK LOVERS

WELCOME!

Thanks so much for enquiring. It means the world that you would consider having me as your wedding photographer - it's truly an honour to be a part of every single wedding I am asked to capture.

Since photographing my first wedding in 2015 I've now shot over 100 beautiful wedding days, and I fell in love from the very first one. It's just such a special feeling to have the privilege of capturing such an important day in a couple's life.

NATURAL, ROMANTIC, EMOTIVE

I specialise in capturing those candid moments and natural emotions – all the laughter and tears of a wedding celebration.

My style favours documentary-like story telling rather than lots of posed or staged shots, and my couples love how relaxed this makes them feel on the day.

What can I say... Shelby is just amazing!! From when we first met Shelby at a wedding fair she was so friendly, helpful and lovely - so much so we actually cancelled our wedding photographer so we could book her! And she absolutely did not disappoint.

At our pre wedding photoshoot she put us at ease and made us feel so comfortable and the results were incredible, I've never seen such beautiful photos, that was until we received our wedding day gallery. Wow!

Shelby was amazing on the day, a real calming presence and she offered help and advice when we needed it (like how to cut a wedding cake properly!).

We absolutely could not fault Shelby, she was brilliant in every sense and the photos she has produced are beyond what we could have imagined.

Shelby we cannot thank you enough for capturing the special moments of our day, moments that will now be able to treasure forever.

Love, Sam & Nathan x

All their photos will be edited by me to achieve a consistent look throughout the gallery,

Honeymoon Shoot

Love Letters

I cannot recommend Shelby enough! Her calm and relaxing nature means you don't feel anxious or nervous or even notice she is there at times but still capturing amazing images and memories. Within the wedding package we purchased, we received an engagement shoot which she made so fun and made us feel like we were just on a day out instead of a shoot! She was easy to contact and plan the day with and helped us so much along the way. She listened to our ideas also and made sure she got all the shots we had asked for as well as guiding us.

On the wedding day, she was prompt with time, she got started straight away and settled in well with all our family and friends. Like I said, she captured all of the unique, amazing moments and memories that you forget happened, down to a cuddle with a sister or family member, my new husband wearing a flower crown and munching on food. The pictures are perfect, edited well and she got them back to us incredibly speedily! If you are looking for someone to help you feel relaxed, and capture all of those relaxed, happy moments then Shelby is the photographer for you!! Absolutely incredible!

Q&A

How many hours are included in your packages?

ALL of my packages include full day coverage from prep to first dance. Rather than cap my services at a certain number of hours I work with the schedule of your day to ensure that no special moments are missed. As a guide, I generally suggest my arrival 1.5-2 hours before the ceremony to capture morning prep, and finishing around 20 minutes after the first dance to capture all those dancefloor party shots!

Do you travel?

Absolutely - both within the UK and abroad. I have been lucky enough to photograph weddings in such amazing locations as France, Italy, Greece and the Channel Islands - nowhere is too far! For UK weddings I include up to 100 miles from my home - for any weddings further than this I may need to add a bit extra to cover the cost of excess mileage and a hotel stay, which I would discuss with you first.

How many images will we get?

This depends entirely on each wedding - the length of the day, number of guests, and whether you have a second shooter are all factors. As a really rough estimation for a full day covering prep to first dance with no second shooter, a minimum of 600 images can be expected. But as I say, this is entirely dependant on each individual wedding and I have been known to deliver more than double this amount on numerous occasions!

How soon after the wedding will we receive our photos?

This typically depends on the time of year (i.e. longer in peak season), but even though my contract states 4-6 weeks I tend to deliver wedding galleries much quicker than this if I don't have a lot of backlog. For example, the longest delivery time I've ever had was 2.5 weeks - and this was a busy season! (For couples sessions or other smaller shoots you can expect to wait 1-2 weeks for your gallery.)

Will you visit our venue before the wedding to scope it out?

I don't do venue visits anymore, mostly because from a photography perspective it is a bit pointless - where I will photograph things such as groups and couple portraits entirely depends on the light on the day, so going to the venue beforehand to plan this out is a bit of a waste of time really! But also because my schedule is normally so full particularly in wedding season that I just don't have the time!

CONTINUED

Do we need to feed you?

Yes please! A nice hot meal is very much appreciated on a long wedding day. If a main meal cannot be provided and I have to leave site in search of food I could end up missing an important moment such as speeches, which tend to start immediately after you've finished your meal. For this reason it's also a good idea to note to your caterers that it's helpful to feed your photographer (and videographer if having one) straight after the top table, so we can eat and get set up ready to capture the next portion of your day as quickly as possible.

Do you have a backup plan incase of illness/emergency?

It's never happened before (touch wood!) but I am part of numerous online communities of photographers, many of which are sources of emergency cover so I'm confident it would never be a problem to find someone to cover me should the worst happen and I am unable to attend on the day.

When do we need to have the couple shoot?

The couple shoot can be anytime you like - it's just like a practice run for the couple portraits on the wedding day so it's perhaps better to do closer to the wedding so that it's fresh in your mind, but I do have some couples that like to use the images from their couple shoot for save the dates or invites etc. as well so if you want to do this shoot as soon as possible after booking with me then that's ok too.

Should we provide you with a list of shots we would like?

I will provide a questionnaire closer to the wedding date which has space for you to write out any group shots you'd like, but other than that most things that I've seen on generic shot lists online are so basic that every photographer should be capturing these anyway! In fact I think it might make me more likely to miss moments if I'm constantly checking a list on the day to make sure I've got everything you've asked for (when I would have captured all this anyway) so best to trust that I will capture everything!

Do you bring backup equipment incase of any technical problems?

I will ALWAYS take two camera bodies to a wedding, so if anything happened to one I would have the other to rely on. I also bring multiple lenses and flashes with me as well as piles of spare memory cards and batteries. My cameras even have dual card slots so that as soon as a picture is taken, it is immediately recorded to both SD cards - so if one was to corrupt there would always be a backup!

Think I'm the

Then let's
